RE: Sept. 7-8 meeting

Hi everyone:

Just some housekeeping points in regard to the upcoming two-day council meeting.

The afternoon session on Sept. 7 will start at 1 p.m. in Room 303 (Old Supreme Court chamber) of the Capitol.

The daylong Sept. 8 session will be in the courtroom of the Jefferson County Courthouse in Boulder. The meeting will feature an hour-long tour of the nearby Riverside Youth Correctional Facility starting at 11 a.m. We will car pool to the facility from the courthouse. The courthouse is located on Centennial Avenue, one block west of Main Street, the town's primary thoroughfare.

Lunch will be provided Friday for council members and DOC staff only.

Please see the enclosed agenda for further details. Also enclosed are the recommendations from the subcommittee that are on the agenda for the meeting on Sept. 8, and minutes of the Aug. 1 subcommittee meeting at which the recommendations were developed.

Other enclosed materials related to agenda items are the NIC report on jail overcrowding and a summary of recommendations from the Mental Health Oversight Advisory Council.
